<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Costs for postage, stamps, cable, telephone, telefax, courier and similar charges will be debited to our customers' accounts in addition to any of the charges mentioned above. • All the costs and charges occurring in Hungary or abroad while our customers' instructions are carried out, as well as the commissions of our correspondents involved in operations, further the costs and charges not reimbursed by them will be charged by us to our customers. • The fees as mentioned above apply only to transactions that can be handled in a routine fashion. Therefore we reserve the right to raise an additional fee when an extraordinary amount of work is required and/or unusual circumstances arise. In line with international practice our bank reserves the right to consider the execution of payment orders at its own competence. • When the amount of any obligation is stated to be "about" or "circa", the confirmation (or acceptance) commission (as the case may be) shall be calculated on the amount indicated, with the plus tolerance considered. • The bank carries out only such instructions that are complete and professionally correct but refuses to bear any responsibility for any delays, errors or misinterpretations arising from unclear transactions In case of account and client relationship closing after taking over the instruction the bank will calculate all the interests and commissions in connection with the account. After the financial settlement, on the third working day following the hand-over of the account closing instruction the remaining balance will be transferred or paid through the Teller – according to the client's instruction

Entry into Force / Conditional Termination

This List of Conditions enters into force as of June 3, 2013 being the effective date and replaces at the same time the previous List of Conditions. The bank reserves the right for the revocation or changing this List of Conditions without individual notification.

Pursuant to the relevant legal provisions the amendments are deemed as agreed and accepted by clients, if prior to the effective date of the List of Conditions, the client did not notify the bank that it rejects the amendments. Moreover, the Clients are entitled to terminate their bank account agreement free of charge, of any costs or of other obligations by the effective date of the List of Conditions.

The bank hereby also notify the clients that if a client rejects the amendments of the List of Conditions prior to its effective date without terminating its bank account contract at the same time, in that case the bank account contract shall be terminated automatically without any further notice on the last banking day preceding the effective date. (conditional termination).

DEFINITIONS

- BANKING DAY: the day when the bank is open with the aim of executing payment transactions. Currency holidays are not considered as banking days in regard of the transactions booked in the given currency. HUF, USD and EUR currency holidays are not considered as banking days in regard of other currencies either. Official information in connection with currency holidays can be reached on the Reuters website of the National Bank of Hungary. Appendix 3 of present List of conditions contains the forecasted currency holidays for preliminary information purposes only, it cannot be considered as full or official information.
- EEA STATES: Austria, Belgium, Bulgaria, Cyprus, Czech Republic, Denmark, Estonia, Finland, France, Greece, Netherlands, Ireland, Iceland, Poland, Latvia, Liechtenstein, Lithuania, Luxemburg, Hungary, Malta, Great-Britain, Germany, Norway, Italy, Portugal, Romania, Spain, Sweden, Slovakia, Slovenia.
- CURRENCIES OF EEA STATES: EUR, BGN, CZK, DKK, EEK, ISK, PLN, LVL, CHF, LTL, HUF, GBP, NOK, RON, SEK
- PAYMENT OPERATION WITHIN THE EEA: a payment transaction where both the payer's and recipient's banks (or the bank, if there is only one bank involved in the operation) are providing their money circulation services within the EEA in EUR or in a currency of an EEA state, different from EUR.

ORDER SUBMISSION

Instructions can be given to the bank electronically and on paper.

- Electronic orders in HUF and in foreign currency can be submitted to our bank anytime, via electronic banking systems supported by BNP Paribas or by BNP Paribas Fortis. We draw your attention to the fact that SCT (Sepa Credit transfer), multiple transfer and multiple collection orders can only be given electronically.
- Paper-based orders are those given on paper personally, via post or via fax. Paper-based payment transfer orders can be submitted via fax anytime, via post and personally during the opening hours of the Bank:
 - Monday - Friday: 8:00 a.m. - 17.00 p.m.

Our bank accepts orders for execution on a given day within the cut-off time. The orders received after the cut-off time will be executed on the next banking day. Submitting a payment order for processing on a given day after the cut-off time is possible only on exceptional basis, in case of exceeding the cut-off time with a very limited period of time, based on a case-by-case agreement and against paying an extra fee, however the execution is not guaranteed even if all the above conditions are met. Should you request we fulfil your instructions after the cut-off time, please contact our Customer Service Desk. We draw your attention to the fact that the Bank cannot guarantee the processing of the order on that given day if the order was given to the bank after the final cut-off time.

Our bank accepts both standing orders and payment orders with a future execution date. The payment orders with future execution date can be submitted in paper-based form or electronically. In case the requested execution date is a bank holiday, the order will be executed on the banking day following the requested execution date.

CONDITIONS OF PROCESSING OF ORDERS ON DAY D

- The order has been submitted to the Bank on day D before the cut-off time;
- The order has been duly approved and validated in accordance with the signature rights reported to the bank;
- The cover has been at disposal on the bank account to be debited the latest by the cut-off time;
- The order contains all the necessary details relevant for the fulfilment of order correctly as follows:
 - Name of beneficiary
 - Account number of beneficiary (in case of transfer within the EEA the IBAN format must be indicated)
 - Amount and currency to be transferred
 - SWIFT code of the beneficiary's bank (In case of transfers within the EEA, it is compulsory to indicate it)

We draw your attention to the fact that our Bank processes the payment order only if all the mandatory fields are filled in on the paper-based or electronic order, and contains all the necessary details correctly in accordance with the rules and with the law.

The Bank charges the client's account with the expenses occurred due to missing or erroneously submitted details or costs related to the inquiring of missing information.

HANDLING OF UNCOVERED ORDERS

Paper-based or electronic transfer orders without available cover on the client's account – in lack of a special agreement – are being automatically deleted on T day (in case of a value dated order on the given value date). In case of multiple transfer orders, there is no partial settlement, in absence of sufficient cover for the whole package the whole package will be deleted.

AMENDMENT AND CANCELLATION OF ORDERS SUBMITTED TO THE BANK

Our bank performs the amendment and cancellation of both the electronic and the paper-based transfer orders appropriately provisioned only in possession of a written amendment/cancellation request containing all the necessary details in an unambiguous way, duly signed in accordance with the signature card reported to the bank.

We draw your attention to the fact that our bank cannot guarantee the execution of amendment or cancellation orders even if the related request has been received in time and in accordance with the requirements. The bank debits the client's current account immediately with the expenses occurred relating to the amendment or cancellation of a transfer order.

The recall of multiple transfer orders is possible until 09:00 a.m. one banking day before the debit day.

 RECALL

As of July 2nd 2012 it is possible to recall mistaken simple and multiple transfer orders initiated via Giro. Recalling transfer orders is possible within 30 days as of the processing date. In case the transfer order has not been executed yet (has not been credited to the bank account of the beneficiary) the amount of the payment (possibly decreased by the fee charged by the beneficiary's bank) is expected to be credited already on the day of processing but the latest 30 days after initiating the recall on the account of the client.

If the transfer order is already executed at the time of the recall (the amount of the transfer is credited to the account of the beneficiary) the amount of the transfer can only be transferred back to the sender's account only with the prior approval of the beneficiary to be obtained within maximum 30 days as of the day when the recall was initiated.

- Foreign Currency I exchange rate: the Bank fixes the FCY I and the foreign currency banknotes exchange rates every banking day not later than 12:15 a.m. for the given day. The fixing is made based on the current international foreign exchange market cross rates in the Reuters system and the buying and selling margins determined by the Bank. The Bank publishes on its website (www.bnpparibas.hu) its Foreign Currency I exchange rate every banking day between 13:00 a.m. and 14:00 p.m.
- Foreign Currency III exchange rate: the Bank fixes the FCY III exchange rates every bank day between 4:30 p.m. and 5:30 p.m. the Bank fixes for the given day. The fixing is made based on the current international FX market cross rates in the Reuters system and the buying and selling margins determined by the Bank. The Bank publishes on its website (www.bnpparibas.hu) its Foreign Currency III exchange rate between 5:00 p.m. and 6:00 p.m.

The Bank reserves the right to modify the exchange rates during the day as many times as necessary – independently from the information above - in case of extraordinary market situations or unusual circumstances, by informing its clients at the same time.

We draw your attention to the fact that in case of an incoming payment in an EEA currency into an account of an EEA currency, it is not possible to quote individual rates.

The Bank – in the lack of a individual agreement - accepts transfer orders only in the currencies quoted by the Bank.

• Cash transactions

In case of cash transactions at the partner bank's tellers that require a currency conversion, if the transaction is in a currency that is not quoted by BNP Paribas, Hungary Branch then the conversion is made using the official exchange rate of the partner bank.

• Bank card transactions

The Bank uses the Hungarian forint (HUF) as settlement currency for domestic bank card transactions cleared in accordance with the National Settlement Agreement for Domestic Bankcard Transactions is) and the Euro (EUR) and the U.S. dollar (USD) for international payments cleared within the International Card transaction settlement systems.

• Fees, commissions

If fees or commissions are not specified in the currency of the given account, the Bank will calculate the conversion using the exchange rate of the National Bank of Hungary valid at the time of the booking of the transaction in the bank's booking system.
